Ancestor Stones Aminatta Forna

Ancestor Stones, a novel, is written in sumptuous prose which makes it a delight to read...Ancestor Stones has a purpose at once modest and grand: to record the history of a country through the stories of four half-sisters, beginning in the 1920's and ending in the present day... Some of the scenes have the clarity of reportage: an election day when the streets are silent, empty, empty because no-one dares venture out to vote; or a proud woman who uses the last of her money to save face, by ...
