not a new reader to Jessica Scott's writing, but this is the first full length book I have read by her. I have absolutely nothing negative to say about Before I Fall, it was beautifully written, the characters were well developed, the flow of the story itself was steady and the revelations came along at all the right points.

Scott's Twitter for years and I value her perspective. As one who has actually served in the armed forces, she has a lot of intelligent things to say and in some of her prior books, she's written not just good romance, but thoughtful stories period. In reading Before I Fall, one catches hints of this throughout the text. However, this is an
